

Excelsior Webinar Aims to Help Returning Veterans Jumpstart College and Career Success

Posted in Veterans & Military By Mike Lesczinski

Veterans and military encounter many challenges on their return to civilian life, especially those seeking out a higher education. In response, Excelsior College, which is home to more than 4,000 veterans and 11,000 active duty personnel among its currently enrolled students, offers a number of programs and services aimed to ease the transition back.

Those services are the topic of a recorded webinar conducted by the Center for Military Education at Excelsior. The free, online event will address the most common concerns voiced by those considering college following military service and provide an overview of the student-focused initiatives at Excelsior.

The one hour webinar will feature four Excelsior experts and focus on targeted issues in the college's two premier courses on college success: CCS 112 Success Strategies for Military and Veterans and CCS 120 EC Success Seminar.

In addition, the webinar will also touch upon a number of other topics, including:

- Easing the transition back to academic life;
- Get the most of your nontraditional credits, state and federal financial aid, VA benefits;
- Self-discovery, career exploration, planning, and job search techniques;
- Online writing lab, library, and academic support services;
